Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force (PSWRFTF) On July 01, 2006 Travis Daniel Westly, a documented member of the Friends Stand United (FSU) gang, was arrested in Chino, CA by members of PSWRFTF and detectives from the Corona, CA PD. Corona PD wanted Westly for Murder. Westly, along with several other individuals, allegedly physically assaulted a nineteen year old male victim, an assault which led to the man's death a short time later. PSWRFTF investigators, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information indicating Westly took refuge at a residence in Chino. Investigators established surveillance at the target residence, observed Westly, moved in, and safely took him into custody.	FSU Gang Member  Travis Daniel Westly Wanted for: Murder
New York/New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force (NY/NJ RFTF) On June 28, 2006 Anthony Patterson, a documented high-ranking member of the Jamaican Shower Posse gang, was arrested in Miramar, FL by members of NY/NJ RFTF, USMS Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) personnel, deputy US marshals (DUSMs) from the Southern District of Florida, agents of the Bureau of Immigration of Customs Enforcement (BICE), the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), and officers from Miramar PD. DEA wanted Patterson for drug trafficking, while BICE wanted him for Illegal Reentry following Deportation. Authorities in Jamaica also suspect Patterson in the murder of a police officer. As a part of that incident, Patterson allegedly broke into the morgue, severed the officer's head, and carried it about as a means of intimidating rival gang members. NY/NJ RFTF initiated an investigation into Patterson's whereabouts, and with critical assistance form the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information indicating his location in Miramar. Investigators traveled to the target location, established surveillance, and after observing several vehicles leave the target residence, trailed these cars to a secondary site. At this location, investigators observed activity suggesting Patterson's presence. Investigators moved into the target, made entry, and safely took Patterson and five associates into custody. Personnel observed weapons in plain sight and contacted agents from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco & Firearms (BATF) who responded to the location with a warrant. BATF agents seized four handguns, an AK-47 assault rifle, a ballistic vest, and more than 13,500 rounds of assorted rifle and handgun ammunition. Investigators also discovered and seized materials commonly used to package and ship narcotics. Patterson currently awaits extradition to New York.	Jamaican Shower Posse Gang Member  Anthony Patterson Wanted for: Drug Trafficking & Illegal Entry

Great Lakes Regional Fugitive Task Force (GLRFTF) On June 23, 2006 Nicholas D Phillips, a documented member of the Gangster Disciples gang, was arrested in Decatur, IL by members of GLRFTF. Authorities in Brownsville, TN wanted Phillips for Murder. Phillips allegedly shot a man in the back of the head after learning that the victim left the Gangster Disciples to join a rival gang. GLRFTF investigators developed information that Phillips, whose family members lived in the Decatur area, fled to Decatur. Investigators established surveillance at the target residence, observed Phillips, and safely took him into custody.	Gangster Disciple Gang Member  Nicholas Phillips Wanted for: Murder
Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force (SERFTF) On June 27, 2006 Carey Marshall was arrested in Atlanta, GA by members of SERFTF. Authorities in Dekalb County (GA) wanted Marshall for Murder for allegedly shooting another man in the head, killing him. SERFTF investigators developed information indicating Marshall fled to the residence of his cousin. SERFTF personnel moved to that location, attempted to enter the residence, and observed a male fitting Marshall's description attempting to flee from a rear window. Investigators forced entry and took Marshall safely into custody. Investigators recovered a shoebox containing a quantity of marijuana, a box of .25 cal ammunition, and a .380 cal semi-automatic handgun. Marshall has a lengthy criminal history of twenty-six arrests for narcotics and weapons offenses.	 Carey Marshall Wanted for: Murder
